It doesn't know what to do! We've once again had a busy week at school talking about Earthquakes. We created our own survival kit and wrote a diary of an earthquake event. Did you write a diary? What did you write about? Did you enjoy the storms this week? My guinea pigs were not happy! Even though love storms, Mrs Jackson isn't keen as she doesn't like lightning. Perhaps it's the rain she doesn't like as you all know!!!! Mrs Jackson's dog Maisie spent last night hiding in the downstairs cupboard because of the terrible noise! This week I have had lots of emails containing lovely work, keep them coming. I hope you enjoy this week's activities. I've added lots from Purple Mash on this newsletter. I discovered a great app on Purple Mash called Busy Beats and have had great fun composing songs. Take care, big hugs and high fives, Mrs E and Mrs J xx	Our topic this term is What a Wonderful World! This week I'd like you to continue to look at Volcanoes. Where are Volcanoes located around the world? What volcanoes are there still active in the world? What is a volcano? Draw a diagram to explain the different parts of a volcano.
