WORLD BOOK DAY 2019

EVENTS AT DODFORD FIRST SCHOOL: BEDTIME STORIES

Pay £1:00 and come to school dressed in your pyjamas ready to enjoy bedtime stories!

Children are invited to come to school dressed in their pyjamas and slippers (Normal shoes will need to still be worn when outdoors). We would like children to bring to school their favourite bedtime story! They might also like to bring a favourite teddy bear, pillow or blanket. Each class will be holding a 'Bedtime Stories Session' where children will get to share bedtime story classics and enjoy a hot chocolate and biscuits.

Money raised will be donated to Book Aid International, a charity who help send books to libraries in Africa.

Storytelling

The theme of our book week is 'Share a Story' pupils will be taking part in lots of reading activities during the week leading up to book day. We would also like children to bring to school a decorated story box which they will fill during the week with objects and props to help them learn by heart and tell a story. Pupils will need to decorate a shoebox on the outside, using any theme, to turn it into a special story box. Decorated boxes must be in school by Monday 4th March.

Family Reading Time Thursday 7th March @ 2:30pm

You are invited to join us in school at 2:30pm to share a story with your child.
